THOROUGH, ANNUAL INDEXING

This is the Index for the monthly TACTICS for the year 1976, compiled as the preface for the bound volume, "TACTICS for 1976".

This is an unmatched, thorough indexing that can serve also as a guide to the unrewritten history of that dramatic year. (The bound "TACTICS for 1976" is $14; the 1976 Index by itself is $4.)

CARTOONS

The following are the cartoons and illustrations, all by the artist Shirley Starbuck (2022 Columbia Rd. NW, Washington, DC 20009), that appeared during the past year in TACTICS magazine:

January 20: New Dimension in Warfare
February 20: Kremlin Plays Modern-Day Fagin
March 20: Psychological Warfare, the Wrong Way
April 20: Who Said There Are No Dominoes?
May 20: Equal Rights! Why Not Men, Too?
June 20: U.S.-Soviet Union Program
July 20: Another View of U.S.-Soviet Unity
August 20: Sailing, Sailing In Space
September 20: We Could Play This Way, Too
October 20: But the U.S. Is Not the Enemy
November 20: Changing of the Guard
December 20: Look Up! Merry Christmas!

Be Specific

TACTICS magazine is proud that its contents, since its start with the January 20,1964 issue, have been confirmed by time and developments. TACTICS neither exaggerates nor minimizes. This is because our prime task is not to convert anyone. We provide what corresponds to intelligence for the military, in the area of national attitudes (psychological warfare, brainwashing, propaganda pressures). Incidentally, the editor put the word, brainwashing, into our language, and what is even more important, diagnosed its content and told what to do about it. This was originally for the Pentagon.

This is the background the editor is sharing with his readers. This is unrewritten history—proven so by the unfolding of events, year by year.

The annual, thorough indexing of TACTICS magazine is thorough and unmatched—there is no comparison with it anywhere else. The index is a handy and informative guide to the textbook that is TACTICS magazine.

They reflect its editor's extraordinary, professional background. They belong in any informed home or institutional library. They can help to save our society.

BUT WHAT IS TACTICS ?

THE MOST SIGNIFICANT NEWS

THE ONLY PROFESSIONAL "PSYWAR" JOURNAL

TACTICS magazine is the only professional journal in the tactical area of the cold-hot, psychological warfare field that parallels what is now called "detente". TACTICS clarifies and makes meaningful whatever else you read. Yet, reflecting the dual background of its editor, it provides news "scoops" and news "exclusives" that are confirmed by developments and time.

Exclusively

Some of its unmatched disclosures and analyses:

The use of insane asylums as political, psychiatric prisons by the Soviet Union. TACTICS was first to bring this out, and to stress its awful significance.

TACTICS was the first publication to make an issue of the Simas Kudirka case. He was the stalwart, freedom-loving Lithuanian who sought asylum on an American Coast Guard ship inside American waters, only to be seized and beaten up by red goons, and kidnaped! He is now in the United States, an illustration of the invincibility of the individual, as symbolized by the U.S. citizen.

The Orlando Letelier case of a pro-communist agent who successfully posed as a non-communist liberal, gaining influential entree into the highest offices of the Congress and the Administration.

The revelation, originally denied, that the Kremlin had forged way ahead of us in nuclear submarines.

Our government's foolhardy support of socialist regimes on the will-o'-the-wisp theory that they would be the most effective foes of the communists! Only TACTICS has brought out that this tragic policy guided our international, post-World War II diplomacy, and has now been revived, in spite of its obvious failure a score of years ago.

The existence of a new dimension in warfare—attack upon the mind—creating a status of privileged treason, unmatched in history. TACTICS is pressing for the legislative and judicial recognition of this new dimension in warfare, by our Congress and the Supreme Court, as the only alternative to new and increasing Viet Nam War-type defeats.

Only TACTICS has brought out the replacement of the Monroe Doctrine by a so-called "plurality of ideologies" policy, that would put the communists on a par with freedom lovers in the Western Hemisphere. TACTICS obtained the texts of the relevant documents, that liquidated the security section of the Organization of American States, in the same manner as the United States was being disarmed in the security field.

Nowhere, but nowhere, can such "exclusives" and "scoops" be matched!

TACTICS magazine provides all this as a by-product of its primary task, which is to provide background (intelligence), guidance and alerts on matters relating to our national attitudes. This could only be provided by one with its editor's background.

Time magazine of Sept. 4, 1939—yes, 1939—credited Edward Hunter with having, in Ken magazine of that time, been one of the very, very few to have predicted a Russo-German (Stalin-Hitler) alliance. Time magazine again, on April 6. 1959—yes, 1959—recalling that "Hunter introduced a grim word to the cold war vocabulary, 'brainwashing'," declared that Hunter "made a sharp point" in Congressional testimony by declaring, "'We are going to be taken for a ride at the summit if we do not realize that the Communists have a special code language which we must deal with.'" How appropriate now, nearly a score of years later!

George E. Sokolsky, N. Y. Herald Tribune columnist, on Oct. 2, 1958, wrote of..."my old colleague in China, Edward Hunter...He writes with passion and zest and assurance of knowledge. He also has the advantage of using original source material which seems to be a dying art..."

TACTICS Tells How to Win

[Subscriptions: $10 a year; combined with a bound volume for the same, or previous year, $20 altogether.]

TACTICS provides the know-how for the maintenance and expansion of our Constitutional system of checks and balances, to enhance the dignity of man, and to defeat the enemies of freedom.
